Rabiner Treatment Center

At their annual convention in October of 1961, the Iowa State Police Association (ISPA) voted unanimously to establish a home for troubled boys. In September of the following year, a ground breaking ceremony marked the opening of the Jerry Rabiner Memorial Boys Ranch. The Ranch's land was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rabiner, in memory of their son Jerry, who was killed in an auto accident in 1953.

Since 1961, the mission of the Rabiner Treatment Center has been to instill hope in the youth and families we serve. We continue this tradition by teaching self-discipline, responsibility, commitment and pride through innovative treatment and positive growth experiences, delivered in a rural Iowa setting. Rabiner Treatment Center is sponsored by the men and women of the Iowa State Police Association.
